

PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

Protection Systems for work as a free jet.

Mainly are essential for operators that work with silica by its toxicity. It consists of a helmet with visor of polycarbonate, a system of filters for the autonomous breathing and an air conditioning unit that produces cold air so that within the hull does not condense water, tarnishing the viewer and preventing the visibility.

